Notes from the boss.....

We will have to work a damn sight harder as a team and as individuals than we did at Wolves on Saturday if we are going to achieve the goal of promotion which we have set ourselves.

I would estimate that we need an improvement all round of between five and ten per cent to get ourselves back on course again—to get back into that position we were in a couple of weeks ago.

The way things have worked out, results wise over the past few weeks, you have got to be looking at something like 16 clubs who are still in with a shout in the promotion race. You can pick any three from those 16 at the moment and there are another three who will still be in with a chance in the play-offs. Our job now is to produce the performances and results to justify our position in the table—and that was something we simply did not do at Molineux, where I was very disappointed with our display.

But I have been under no illusions all along. We are some way short of being a side ready to claim one of those promotion positions. But I am prepared to meet the problems head on, beginning this evening with the best possible result against Tranmere Rovers—a side which struggled earlier in the season but has rallied well recently to clinch one of the two places at Wembley for the Football League's Centenary celebrations.

Saturday's game was never going to decide any of the important issues of the season but I felt we got something of a lesson from Wolves. I hope we managed to learn enough from the game to get ourselves back on the right track.

In welcoming Tranmere to Burnden Park, I hope tonight's match is one we will all enjoy.

TRANMERE ROVERS

Tranmere Rovers experienced the most dramatic season ever when they hung on to their Football League status by winning their final game of the season.

Rovers courted disaster on two fronts. In January, American chairman, Bruce Osterman, announced he would wind up the club if he failed to get the local council's backing for his plan to sell off Prenton Park for retail development and use the proceeds to build a new stadium in the Wirral. When planning permission was refused, the American lawyer toyed with potential buyers so long that a locally-based director applied for an administration order in the High Court to prevent the club from folding.

The Administrator's first action in February was to axe player-manager Frank Worthington and his assistant George Mulhall, paid executive Ken Bracewell, youth development officer Colin McDonald and youth coach Roy Lorenson. Ronnie Moore was appointed acting team manager of a wafer-thin squad. Rovers used five different goalkeepers and the team hurtled down the Fourth Division.

The club was saved by local businessman Peter Jobson who bought the controlling shares. John King took over the running of the team. In the final game of the season survival was assured thanks to the club's ten fit professionals plus two local non-contract players.

VISITORS PEN FILE

RONNIE MOORE—Player/Coach—Defender.
Born Liverpool. After two successive £100,000 plus moves to Cardiff and Rotherham, one of Tranmere's most popular 'sons' returned to Prenton Park in the summer of 1986. Though he started life as a defender, present boss John King converted Ronnie to a striker with considerable success.
Granted a testimonial this season, Ronnie had a three month spell as Player-Manager following Frank Worthington's dismissal in February 1987. Appointed Player-Coach in October, Ronnie directs operations from his role as sweeper behind two central defenders.

MARK McCARRICK—Full-Back.
Born Liverpool. Signed before the season started from non-league Runcorn. Mark started his career at West Brom before moving to first division Birmingham City from Witton Albion. He made fifteen appearances for City before moving onto Lincoln and Crewe for some 18 months. Returned from Finland last season to Runcorn and has since been a regular on the side, becoming a great crowd favourite because of his all action style.

STEVE VICKERS—Defender.
Born Auckland. Highly promising young North Easterner who was spotted playing for Spennymoor in the Northern League three years ago. By the middle of the current campaign Steve had 65 appearances under his belt and has regularly attracted the attention of scouts, who cannot fail to be impressed by his dominating and composed displays. If he maintains his current progress he is definitely a name to watch out for.

STEVE MUNGALL—Defender.
Born Bellshill, Scotland. An ever present last season at right back, Steve topped 300 League appearances for Rovers over Christmas. 'Player of the Year' last season, Steve started his career with Motherwell but was signed in 1979 by present boss John King.
A whole hearted and consistent performer, who successfully combines all the virtues of an old fashioned full back with those of a modern attacking midfielder.

JUMMY HARVEY—Midfield.
Born Lurgan, N.Ireland. Jimmy became Rover's most expensive buy in October 1987 when he paid Bristol City £25,000 for his services. A Northern Ireland Under 23 International, Jimmy started his career with Glenavon, but was transferred to Arsenal for £30,000. Limited first team opportunities at Highbury saw him moved on to Hereford United where he made nearly 300 appearances before being transferred in March to Bristol City for £25,000.

IAN MUIR—Forward.
Born Coventry. A former England Schoolboy, started his career at QPR where he was understudy to Stan Bowles and had spells at Burnley (loan), Birmingham and Swindon (loan), before being signed from Brighton by Frank Worthington in July 1985. He has since developed into one of the best forwards in the lower divisions and scored 25 goals last season. Although expected to move during the summer, he eventually decided to stay at Prenton, and by the turn of the year was well on his way to breaking the 20 goal barrier again.

JIM STEEL—Striker.
Born Dumfries, Scotland. Rovers doubled their largest transfer, when they paid Wrexham over £50,000 for their most prized asset on November 19th 1987. Jim started his career with Oldham before moving to Wigan and Wrexham on loan. He transferred to Port Vale in 1983 for £5,000, Wrexham returned to sign him 12 months later for double that fee. Jim has since developed into one of the most feared strikers in the lower divisions averaging 20 goals per season.

JOHN MORRISSEY—Forward.
Born Liverpool. A tricky, skillful right winger who followed in his fathers footsteps by joining Everton from school. Unable to dislodge Trevor Steven, John moved onto Wolves before Frank Worthington brought him back to Merseyside for £8,000 in October 1985. Both a maker and taker of chances, John's goals are never less than spectacular, with seven to his credit last season.

MATCH REPORT

AROUND THE LEAGUES

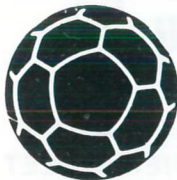

Littlewoods Cup finalist, Arsenal showed little compassion for lowly placed Charlton, romping home 4-0 at Highbury. Everton, who have gone out of all the major cup competitions within a week finally got back to winning ways at Goodison, beating Southampton by the odd goal. Tottenham, who have had indifferent form of late secured a fine away win at Sheffield Wednesday—Clive Allen starting the 3-0 rout. Two John Barnes goals defeated Portsmouth at Fratton Park to take Liverpool's unbeaten run to 27 games.

In Division Two, team of the moment, Blackburn looked to have surrendered their 23 games unbeaten but Garner and Hendry pepped up in the last eight minutes to force a 2-2 draw at Leeds. Aston Villa's 5-2 home win over Plymouth puts them back at the top but only on goal difference. Man. City meanwhile lost 1-0 at David Pleat's Leicester.

In Division Three, Sunderland have suffered two defeats on the trot and this vital error has allowed Notts. County to take up the leadership. Neighbours Bury gained their first victory in a month with a slim 2-1 win over Brighton. Cup giant killers Port Vale won a difficult encounter with Brentford by the odd goal. A Gary Brazil penalty helped Preston to three important points over third placed Walsall. High flying Wigan fell foul of bottom placed York 3-1 at Bootham Crescent.

We attracted Division Four's highest attendance, 12,430 at Molyneux where Wolves were too good on the day. This defeat temporarily places us in 5th spot and nicely on the fringe without too much pressure. Striker Steve Bull fired home two more goals to lay the foundations for Wolves' best win of the campaign. His first was a terrific shot that flew into the far corner of the net and the second came when he was perfectly positioned to score from 12 yards. It was 3-0 when Dennison, watched by Northern Ireland manager Billy Bingham, gave keeper Felgate no chance with a shot from 25 yards. Then Robinson headed home an inch-perfect cross from McDonald. It was not until the 53rd minute that Bolton threatened the Wolves goal for the first time. But Morgan's header went well wide.

Asa Hartford's Stockport again produced good away form to surprise Cardiff. Leyton Orient took over 3rd place after defeating Wrexham and Scunthorpe move into No. 4 after whitewashing Peterborough.

GUEST SPOT

THE OTHER LIFE OF
DAVE FELGATE

When it comes down to marketing and public relations Bolton Wanderers are renowned to be tops. Only last month for instance, every Lifeline member was personally invited to the Torquay game as Club guests to witness the draw for the fabulous Lifeline prize—an apartment in Tenerife.

Going back further, remember the 'Superwhites Nights' when the team, headed by Commercial Manager Alf Davies would choose a different venue every so often and spend their social time chatting and mixing with supporters. Even now the players participate in less publicised events such as Lifeline cheque presentations at pubs around Town—and Nat goes along too.

It's a matter of creating a good Club image and modern day players are expected to participate in such activities, as part of the job. A few weeks ago Dave Felgate was approached to do the 'honours' at a simple presentation of trophies in Astley Bridge at the Lamb Hotel, a pub which has a fair amount of Wanderers fans and subscribe regularly to the Nightline fund raising scheme.

David duly accepted and took his wife Lynne along as well and they were warmly greeted. Earlier in the day the former Welsh International had played a part in the victory over Stockport and the game was an obvious topic for conversation. In particular, three keen fans in Paul Stones, Mark Fielding and Chris Ormrod commanded Dave's attention as he answered questions virtually in rotation.

After the presentation and camera flash bulbs Dave turned to pottin 'em instead of stoppin 'em as he accepted a challenge to play pool. David managed to keep another clean sheet whether it be by foul means or fair. The whole evening proved to be enjoyable and successful for everyone concerned, so much so that David paid compliment to the three lads and arranged for them to be his guests at the home game against Scarborough.

Paul, Mark and Chris thoroughly enjoyed their day at Burnden and now David has three more fans to his club.

He must have done a fair job because we believe that landlord Derek Fielding is trying to increase his Nightline membership with his 'regulars' in a bid to return the compliment for the Wanderers. Another 'good turn' that David has carried out was the Lifeline Draw at Leigh Rugby when he went to watch a game recently.

He is an active member of the P.R. side of Bolton Wanderers.

NOTICE BOARD

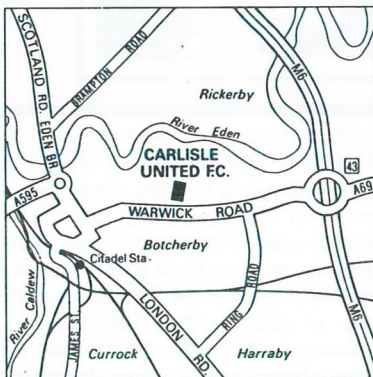

GOING TO CARLISLE?

The Travel Club are taking bookings for the away game on Saturday, 5th March. Coaches leave at 11.30 am and the price is £6.

GOING BY CAR?

From Bolton take A676 to intersection 5, junction with M61. Take M61 north, then M6 to intersection 43, junction with A69; A69 to Carlisle.

Carlisle United Football Ground is in Warwick Road (A69 Newcastle Road), on the right about half a mile after leaving the motorway.

ATTENTION!

During the last Home game against Hereford United supporters may have seen the ejection from the ground of two members of the public by the Police.

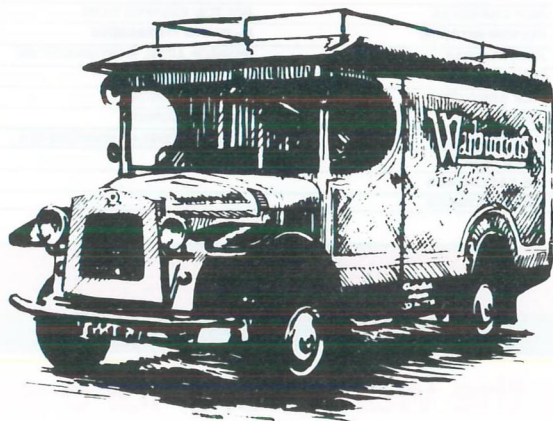

They were not arrested for any disturbance during the match but for questioning regarding disturbances at Barnsley during the Cup Tie the previous month.

Members of the South Yorkshire Police working with our own force and armed with photographs of the trouble at Oakwell used our own Closed Circuit Television to identify persons wanted for questioning. They will shortly be appearing in Court to face charges.

The Police are obviously determined to bring troublemakers to justice and the Club fully supports their action. We do not want this element following the Club either HOME or AWAY.

FLASH BACK

5 YEARS AGO—26th February, 1983.

Two opportunist goals from Dave Hoggan and one from Ray Deakin, his first for the club, were enough to defeat Middlesbrough 3-1 at Burnden. Deakin opened the scoring in the 14th minute with a 35 yard swerving left foot drive that left Boro' keeper Kelham O'Hanlon standing like a sentry as it sped into the top corner of the net. Hoggan increased the lead in the 28th minute with a header but Malcolm Allison's side came back into the game and Heine Otto pulled one back ten minutes into the second half.

Hoggan wrapped the points up for the Wanderers with five minutes remaining when he swept home a Simon Rudge cross. March 5th, 1983. The Wanderers went down 3-1 at Barnsley despite taking the lead in the 12th minute through a Simon Rudge goal. Alan Birch, Mick McCarthy and Billy Ronson hit back for the Yorkshire side.

10 YEARS AGO—27th February, 1978. Bolton made their exit from the FA Cup at the fifth round stage when Middlesbrough won 2-0 at Ayresome Park. The Wanderers failed to get their game together against the first division side and went behind after only six minutes through a Billy Ashcroft goal. Stan Cummins hit Boro's second goal to earn them a home tie against Orient.

4th March, 1978. The Wanderers had to settle for a point from a 1-1 draw against fellow promotion challengers Brighton at Burnden. Peter Reid opened the scoring in the 34th minute when he scored from close range after Frank Worthington had laid on the opening for him. Brighton equalised from the penalty spot in the 52nd minute when Brian Horton scored after John Ritson had brought Garry Williams down.

15 YEARS AGO—3rd March, 1973. John Byrom returned to the side for the first visit of Walsall and gave the Wanderers an 18th minute lead. Bobby Shinton equalised for the Midlands in the 36th minute but Paul Jones restored the lead almost immediately. Garry Jones made it 3-1 with four minutes remaining before a crowd of 14,924.

5th March, 1973. Bolton increased their lead to three points at the top of the third division with a 1-0 win at York City. Stuart Lee scored the all important goal after 28 minutes play.

RESERVES NEWS

PRESTON NORTH END RES . . . 0 BOLTON WANDERERS RES . . . 1

2nd February, 1988.

The Wanderers Reserves registered their first ever win on plastic, to make it six wins out of seven games, climbing into third spot in the League thanks to a goal from former North Ender Ian Stevens three minutes into the second half. Stevens produced a scintillating angled shot to beat 'keeper Andrew Gill who had made a number of spectacular first half saves from long range Bolton attempts. Stevens was unlucky not to score a second goal in the 67th minute when from a similar position his powerful shot struck the stanchion. Phil Neal and Mark Winstanley were commanding in the middle of the defence with North End never seriously troubling Ian Senior.

Team: Senior, Spooner, O'Brien, Callaghan, Neal, Winstanley, Brown, Banks, Stevens, McKearney, Booth. Subs-Raven for Stevens, Still.

BOLTON WANDERERS RES . . . 1 DONCASTER ROVERS RES . . . 1

10th February, 1988.

Bolton had to fight from behind to earn a point against lowly Doncaster Rovers. Paul Gorman gave the visitors the lead in the 22nd minute a right wing cross finding him unmarked to head home. Mark Samways in Rovers goal produced a class save to deny Derek Booth but he could do little to prevent the Wanderers equalising in the 53rd minute. A tremendous scramble took place in front of Rovers goal with the ball eventually being forced over the line by Booth. Both Julian Darby and Mark Winstanley went close to getting the winner for the Wanderers with Darby also having a penalty appeal turned down.

Team: Gray, Brown, O'Brien, Darby, Neal, Winstanley, Henshaw, Callaghan, Stevens, McKearney, Booth. Subs-Spooner for Stevens, Moran.

WEST BROMWICH ALBION RES . . . 4 BOLTON WANDERERS RES . . . 1

17th February, 1988.

Promotion rivals West Brom fielded a strong side that proved too much for the Wanderers at the Hawthorns but they were far from disgraced. Tony Morley put the home side in front after two minutes and Bobby Williamson increased their lead on the half hour. The Wanderers lost Mark Came at half time the defender obviously still struggling to fight off the effects of a virus. Bolton pulled one back in the 62nd minute when Dave McKearney shot into an empty net after Derek Booth had blocked Stuart Naylor's clearance. The 'keeper collided with Booth in the incident and the young Wanderer had to spend the night in hospital suffering from concussion. In attempting to force an equaliser the Wanderers left defensive gaps and Albion capitalised through a Chris O'Brien own goal in the 74th minute and a Tony Morley shot just on time.

Team: Gray, Brown, O'Brien, Callaghan, Came, Winstanley, Henshaw, Banks, Stevens, McKearney, Booth. Subs-Spooner for Booth, Neal for Came.

MANCHESTER ROAD

The Fourth Division trap-door seems to be beckoning Newport County, who like ourselves, were relegated at the end of last season from Division Three. When the season began back in August every Fourth Division club knew that come next May they could be out of the League, replaced by the champions of the Vauxhall Conference League. We are now in the month of March and Newport find themselves anchored at the bottom of the football League with games running out and fellow strugglers Stockport, Carlisle and Exeter picking up points to keep their own survival hopes intact.

Tranmere Rovers began the season very shakily but two shrewd signings, Jim Harvey and Jim Steel, have turned things round quite a bit and recently they qualified for Wembley next month along with Wolves to represent the Fourth Division in the Mercantile celebrations. Tonight's encounter will give us a chance to gain revenge for the defeat we suffered back at Prenton Park in December.

But on the subject of promotion to the Fourth Division it is certainly not always a bed of roses. Just ask Scarborough. Scarborough came into the League with basically a part-time football team, but the cost of ground improvements and higher over-heads have recently put them into the headlines again but not for football reasons, it is money problems. They have found that their income has not been as high as their expenditure and obviously this causes money problems. Commercially a football club has to get the very best out of it's fund raising activities, with income from the turnstiles these days not going far enough to cover costs.

On closing this week, I wonder if anybody has been watching 24-Hour T.V. which has just started on I.T.V., because at around 2.30 in the morning, sports programmes have been introduced showing minority sports, ie Turkish Wrestling, Sumo Wrestling, etc. What the viewing figures are like, I wouldn't like to guess. Maybe they could give Eddie 'Eagle' Edwards his own programme because he's done so well on ski jumping what David Coleman has done to A Question of Sport.

WANDERERS HALF MARATHON

The Trotters Thirteen organised by the Wanderers' own Athletic club, The Burnden Road Runners, takes place this year on Sunday, 10th April 1988 at 10 a.m. The distance as usual is 13.1 miles, a half marathon, and takes in the same route as last year with the start and finish here at Burnden.

This years race is sponsored by McMillans of Bolton and all finishers receive a commemorative memento. A donation from the proceeds will be made to MENCAP and application forms are available now from the Commercial Office.

All enquiries to Dave Bishop on 0942-832824.

JOHN O'GROATS TO LANDS END

The Burnden Road Runners will also be attempting to run in relay, non-stop, from John O'Groats to Lands End in June. Twelve runners along with reserves and backup will set off on the 4th June for the 890 miles journey to raise money for MENCAP. It is anticipated that the run will take five days each runner completing ten mile legs in turn.

The event has already received tremendous backing and companies or individuals interested in sponsoring any part of the run are requested to contact Janice Marland on 397559.

YOUTH TEAM TRIUMPH

The Wanderers Youth team qualified for a semi-final at Blackpool in the Lancashire Youth Cup by defeating Oldham Athletic 3-1 at Burnden. Bolton are of course holders of the trophy and the youngsters produced a brilliant goal to start their defence of it. Mike Jeffrey and Chris Banks combined to cross for Mark Raven to send home a spectacular diving header in the 29th minute.

Seven minutes later Banks shot home from a wide position on the right and in the third minute of the second half Ian Callaghan's cross was completely misjudged by the Oldham keeper for Bolton's third. Steve Bramwell pulled one back for Oldham but the Wanderers stood firm to take the tie.

Team: Price, Spooner, O'Brien, Banks, Jackson, Halligan, Callaghan, Still, Raven, Jeffrey, Booth. Subs-Moran, Fisher.

REFLECTIONS

Tranmere Rovers make their third League visit to Burnden tonight, their last being way back in September 1972.

There have been five previous League meetings with the Wanderers having won twice to Rovers once, the other two having been drawn. The first League encounter took place at Prenton Park in September 1971 when a goalless draw resulted. Bolton won the return that season thanks to a John Byrom goal on an Easter Monday afternoon.

The following season, again in the Third Division, saw Bolton win 2-0 at Burnden with both goals coming in the final ten minutes of the game. Garry Jones converted a penalty after Ralph Wright had been fouled and Wright himself scored the second in the dying minutes. On Boxing Day 1972 the sides drew 1-1 at Prenton before a crowd of 14,356 the home team going in front after four minutes through Eddie Loyden. Garry Jones hit Bolton's equaliser to keep them in top position.

Last December Tranmere recorded their first ever win over the Wanderers in a competitive fixture thanks to goals from Jim Harvey and Jim Steel in the last 13 minutes.

Our paths have crossed much more frequently in recent years in cup competitions. In the FA Cup we were drawn together in 1983/84 and 1986/87. In the first round during November 1983 a 2-2 draw took place at Tranmere the home side equalising in injury time thanks to Neville Powell after the Wanderers had taken an 89th minute lead through a Jeff Chandler penalty. In the replay Mark Allen gave Rovers the lead but the Wanderers hit back to win 4-1 after extra time.

In December 1986 Tranmere visited Burnden for a second round FA Cup tie and were beaten 2-0 thanks to goals from Tony Caldwell and Steve Thompson.

The Wanderers were also victorious in a Freight Rover Northern Section Quarter Final over Tranmere at Burnden in March 1986. The visitors went in front in the 23rd minute through Mark Hughes but it was short lived as George Oghani equalised two minutes later. Tony Caldwell hit the winner in the 61st minute scoring his fifth goal in as many games.

SUTTY'S MILESTONE

Dave Sutton took part in his 400th Football League game in the 1-0 win over Hereford at Burnden. Dave has spent most of his playing career at Huddersfield where he clocked up 242 games. His other clubs were Plymouth (61 apps.) and Reading (9 apps.) therefore playing in his 88th League game for the Wanderers to round off another hundred.

OUT & ABOUT

Dear Sirs,

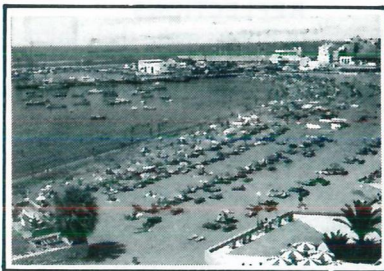

I am 25 years old and I am great fan of sport souvenirs especially football programs and badges. I collect it about 2 years and I prefer english and scotland clubs.

Unfortunately I have not succeeded to contact somebody with the same interest in Britain till the present. I decided to ask you for help. If it is possible and you are so willing send me an address any of your fan who wants to exchange programs and badges or publish my address in your program.

I send you sample of my collection—badge of our leading football club and thank you very much beforehand.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Sport friends,

First of all allow me to send you best greetings from Czechoslovakia.

I like very much English football and therefore I look for a pen-friend of your supporters club with whom I could exchange English football souvenirs for Czechoslovakian souvenirs as badges, pennants, magazines, stamps

I am a great football fan, my favourite team is Sparta Praha and I collect all sorts of sporting souvenirs, specially metal football badges. I hope that somebody of your supporters will agree my proposal and that we will be in future good friends.

I wish to Bolton Wanderers very much success in the year 1988 and I hope I will see English clubs on the European scene soon.

Yours in sport,
PETR PISA.

Dear Sir,

I have a number of Bolton H/A programmes for sale from 1957 to date.

I would be grateful if you would mention this in one of your programmes as 25% of all monies received goes to the Redwings Horse & Donkey Sanctuary in Norwich which caters for sick, ill-treated and unwanted horses and donkeys. A SAE would be appreciated.

Yours in sport,
DAVID NORRIS.
